"It is very sweet to receive a favour from the hand of a friend. I am not grateful, no, for gratitude includes a somewhat oppressive sense of obligation. I only feel that my friend cares for me."

I am going to offer for your consideration a plan (re study) that the following reasons have led me to adopt - "Acknowledge God in all thy ways & He shall direct thy paths". "He that Knoweth Me, I will Know, but he that despiseth me shall be lightly esteemed". "The increase is the Lords", "without me ye can do nothing". These texts prove what we know well enough without them, that it is for our temporal as well as spiritual profit to be much in prayer with our God. Often in our prayers, at the fag end of the day and tired out, we often mumble a set of words - "Shall He accept this of our hand"? I do not think it. I cannot help thinking that in this way, many draw down curses instead of blessings. So to remedy, so far as in me lies, this great evil, I have made up my mind, as soon as tea is over, when I feel quite fresh, I will devote half or ¼ of our hour to Bible reading & earnest prayer; I think that by thus "seeking first the Kingdom of Heaven", I shall be sure to — nay, I will say no more, lest I receive my answers in this life, and may Heaven keep me from that.

"The lot is cast into the lap, but the whole disposing thereof is of the Lord." Such is the text I have chosen for your support × and comfort in this week of trial "lean not unto thine own understanding" - trust in the Lord When you have not answered

The enclosed cuttings + letters may serve to give a clearer view of matters in connection with the Bradford School.
It is worthy of note that Miss Mason has influenced the lives of hundreds of girls in Bradford, both directly and indirectly. Indirectly by inducing me to carry out the scheme we had conjointly planned, on the lines of the Worthing School, and directly (later) by taking part in the actual teaching of the school.

I need not say how much her valuable work was appreciated. One parent writes:- "We shall ever retain most grateful recollections of the benefit our children have derived in your ~~school~~ excellent school., especially the thoroughly good religious instruction, and reverence for sacred things inculcated. We have also a keen appreciation of Miss Mason's good influence. Our girls think & speak of her with much affection. I have read the * Prospectus with much interest. I trust Miss Mason may have every success and encouragement in her efforts. I am sure she will be a blessing to many. I hope Mabel may find admittance after a time; but, at present we think her hardly old enough or disciplined enough" questions as you could have wished, do not worry + murmur + chide with yourself, for in so doing, you murmur against our God, and forget not that He is a God unto whom all hearts are open. Learn rather to say - "Even so Father, for so it seemed good in Thy sight."

- - - remember that the whole disposing of thy lot is of the Lord - that the victory cometh not by might - nor by power, but only through the Spirit of the Lord.
Get all the strength you can for this emergency - be much in prayer - struggle against a weary body + still more weary mind Try to carry a calm, strong heart - "Strong in the strength which God supplies
Through His eternal Son."
